1) Question: Section 5) Price Page – Fee Schedule

The price page identifies required delivery dates for anticipated quantities of Type A & Type B. We are particularly referencing the earliest ship date (August 15, 2012). The schedule listed appears to include the contract negotiation, submittal review, manufacturing and shipping; completing all of these tasks by the August 15, 2012 delivery date will be challenging to guarantee. Will you consider extending this delivery date to September 30, 2012?

MoDOT Response: MoDOT is required to provide one (1) Type A freeway type) DMS sign to the J611010H contractor by Aug. 15, 2012. Therefore that date would not be changed unless all responders indicate the same issue.

2) Section 4)C)1.C. – Evaluation Factors (Page 120)

25% of the evaluation criteria is to be based on Costs, Fees and Expenses. Please clarify how MHTC will evaluate price to award this 25%? IE: base price for type A & B, estimated costs based on anticipated order quantities or total costs from Specification Types A-D, Expenses, Renewals & Replacement Components.

MoDOT Response: The 25% cost evaluation factor is for all DMS types (A-D). Renewals are not considered in the evaluation of the base contract.
